President's Report April 2011

Though most of our snow locally has vanished, there's still plenty to ski on in the North Country. There are even rumors we'll be skiing at the May WW, so stay tuned!

By all accounts we have had a great ski season. Our operating systems were challenged at times due to being at or near full capacity for most of the winter, but we survived. As mentioned before in this space, we will be reviewing some of our procedures and making adjustments where necessary.

Please take a moment to thank Charlie Levin for keeping the kitchen running, and Andy Levin for coordinating the reservation process over the winter. And a big thank you to Chef Hermann for his great job in the kitchen, enjoyed by both weekend and mid-week members and guests.

I hope to see you all at the wine tasting on April 12th.

Phil Brewer

Lodge Committee Report

Holly and I are about to leave today (April 1 – no fooling) from Road Town in the British Virgin Islands for a two-week bareboat sail. I can't see too many problems to report from here, but Chris White or Phil Brewer can be contacted if some should arise. I plan to announce the work weekend dates soon after we return in Mid-April. Enjoy the rest of the season at Cannon, as we warm up in the BVIs.
